#1 PINEL ISLAND

Pinel Island is a small island a few miles away from "Cul de sac" on the French side of St Marteen. It really worth going there to relax and admire Paradisiac landscapes. You can take a taxi boat that will bring you on the island in a about 10 minutes and that costs $10-12. Or if you feel in great shape and more adventurous you can also rent a kayak to navigate to the island. The water there is quiet and crystal blue.

It is a great place to picnic but you can also eat in one of the two restaurants there : "the Yellow beach" and "Karibuni". You can also rent lounge chairs and an umbrella for $25 per couple. Depending on your order, the restaurant can install the small round table right in the clear blue water for you to enjoy your food and drinks.

If you want to walk and discover the island a little more there are some paths that are great to visit the natural reserve. If you plan the walk across the island, don't forget to bring some comfortable shoes!

#2 MAHO BEACH

Maho Beach is known for being the closest beach from the airport and for being the must go place to see planes land and take off. About every 5 minutes a plane come or leave from the island and it is something very impressing to see you don't want to miss it. When big airplanes take off some people like to hang on the airport barrier to feel their jet blast. If you are adventurous and decide to do it, be aware because you might really fly away, and some accidents has already happened, so hang on tight. The best thing to do is the stay on the beach just behind the plane that is about to take off, and in the worst case you might fall into the warm water of Maho beach.

And for the less adventurous or the ones that just want to chill out, you can go to Sunset bar & grill bar and have a nice drink while you admire the planes that land and take off, and watching some funny and excited people on the beach.

3 PIC PARADIS

Pic paradise is the highest point of St Maartin's island. From there you can get a great panoramic view of the island. To reach the peak of the mountain you have to hike. You'll see that it will be a great hiking as you will stand in the middle of the wild nature that is a small jungle. But don't worry you will find a nice path to walk on. You just need some good shoes, a big bottle of water to hydrate yourself, and don't forget your camera, to catch some unforgettable picture memories. You have two options: you can walk from the bottom of the mountain until the top or you can also drive until a certain point and then walk about 5 minutes to the top. If you decide to drive, be careful because the road there is very narrow and sloping. And once you arrive to the tip of the road there is no parking, but 2 or 3 spots where you can stay a little while.

#10 BUCCANEER BEACH BAR

Buccaneer beach bar is located in Simpson Bay on the Dutch side of the island. The best time of the day to go to this beach bar is just before sunset. Begin your night by admiring the amazing sunset. Begin by relaxing on a beach chair on the beach and if you are lucky the massage lady will pass by and offer to give you a massage. Just imagine admiring the sunset while receiving a great "aloe vera" back or feet massage! When the night comes you can chill at the bar, eat and drink while you listen to a great band playing some nice caribbean music. A little later people working at the bar will fire up the two big metallic balls on the beach. It is very nice to see and to sit by, but just be careful not to come to close.
